

Please do not allow the weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Laws. I now answer my home telephone. I did not answer it for years because of all of the annoying calls. If the laws are weakened, I would consider terminating my home phone service and just rely on my cell phone.